Cash Incentive on Research Publication

The reward on research publication policy is developed to encourage faculty members of SHU to produce quality research work in related domains. For this, a detailed policy is developed at SHU.

As per this policy, the Cash incentive shall be paid for a publication in an impact factor journal. Impact factor publications play a significant role in contribution to international rankings of universities. Cash Incentives shall also be paid to HEC Y category journals publication, only be applicable to Faculty of Humanities & Social Sciences, and Management Sciences.

To be eligible for cash incentive, the researcher/author should be affiliated with SHU and his affiliation is mentioned in published article of impact factor journal.
