Job Fair

Overview

A Job Fair is an event of immense advantage to both employers and potential employees. SHU's CP&ILO provides this amazing platform to job seekers to meet and network with multiple employers in order to grasp potential employment and internship opportunities, and for employers to meet a large and diverse pool of candidates. Moreover, Undergrads looking for internships or job placements in leading firms and organizations in Pakistan can avail themselves of this opportunity to interact with numerous employers and representatives of top corporations and drop in their resumes at the companies of their dreams.
